

Norman and Norma (by The Divine Comedy)

Intro: [D] /// | [A] /// | [E7] /// | [A] /// |

[D] Norman and Norma got [A] married in Cromer
 [E7] April Nineteen Eighty [A] Three
 It [D] could have been warmer but [A] Norman and Norma
 Were [E7] happy as they'd ever [A] been
 They [F] flew to Majorca and [C] swam in the water
 It [G] felt just like having a [E7] bath
 The [Am] piña coladas [Dm] hit Norma hard
 And she fell into bed with a [G] laugh, and she said

[F] Oh, [G] Norman, it's [Em] never ever felt like [Am] this before
 And [F] oh, [G] Norman, I've [Em] never really known your [Am] kiss before
 Oh [F] no, [E7] Norman, [Dm7] Norman
 [Gsus4] Nor-[G]-man

[D] Norman and Norma had [A] three lovely daughters
 [E7] Nadia, Nora and [A] Niamh
 The [D] firm Norma worked at [A] wouldn't take her back
 [E7] After maternity [A] leave
 They [F] dreamt of Majorca but [C] couldn't afford to [G] go on Nor-man's sal-a-[E7]-ry
 So [Am] they went to Cromer, got [Dm] double pneumonia
 And Norma remembered when [G] she - used - to - say

[F] Oh, [G] Norman, it's [Em] never ever felt like [Am] this before
 And [F] oh, [G] Norman, I've [Em] never really known your [Am] kiss before
 Oh [F] no, [G] Norman [Em] [Am]
 [F] [E7] [Dm7] [Gsus4] Nor-[G]-man

[D] Twenty years on and the [A] children have gone
 And they're [E7] both at a bit of a [A] loss
 They've [D] tried salsa classes and [A] growing tomatoes
 But [E7] nothing is getting them [A] off
 Then [F] one day in Clacton there's [C] a re-enactment
 Of [G] Normans and Saxons, and [E7] this Gets [Am] their juices flowing, be-[Dm]-fore long they're going
 And fighting like it's Ten Sixty-[G]-Six!
 And she [F#] says

[F] Oh, [G] Norman, it's [Em] never ever felt like [Am] this before
 And [F] oh, [G] Norman, I've [Em] never really known such [Am] bliss before
 Oh [F] no, [G] Norman [Em] [Am]
 Oh [F] no, [G] Norman ... yeah [Em] [Am]
 Oh no no [F] no, no, no no [G] Norman, it's [Em] never ever felt like [Am] this before
 And <F> no, <E7> Norman <Dm7> Norman <Gsus4> Nor-<G>-man
