

Darlin' [C]

Artists: Frankie Miller, Writer: Stewart Oscar Blandamer, (1978)

Intro: (C)/// (C) / <(G)> <(F)>

(C) Darlin', I'm feeling pretty (G) lonesome
I'd call you on the (G) phone some,
But I don't have a (C) dime /// (C)/ <(G)> <(F)>

(C) Darlin', you're so far be(G)hind me
Tomorrow's gonna (G) find me, further down the (Am) line (F)

(F) Takin' me some (C) paper, pencil in my (G) hand,
I'm gonna write:

(C) Darlin', you know I feel the (G) cold nights
Thinking of the (G) old nights spent along with (C) you /// (C)/ <(G)> <(F)>

(C) Darlin', the tear is in my (G) eye now
Knowing I can (G) try now, to make it back to (Am) you (F)

(C) Darlin', the tear is in my (G) eye now
Knowing I can try now, to make it back to (C) you (C)

(C7) Darlin', love you more than (F) ever
Wish we were to(C)gether, (G)/ (F) darlin' of (C) mine / <(G)> <(F)> <(C)> (234)

(C) Darlin', I'm feeling pretty (G) lonesome
I'd call you on the (G) phone some,
But I don't have a (C) dime /// (C)/ <(G)> <(F)>

(C) Darlin', you're so far be(G)hind me
Tomorrow's gonna (G) find me, further down the (Am) line (F)

(C) Darlin', I'm feeling pretty (G) lonesome
I'd call you on the (G) phone some,
But I don't have a (C) dime /// (C)/ <(G)> <(F)>

(C) Darlin', I'm feeling pretty (G) lonesome
I'd call you on the (G) phone some,
But I don't have a (C) dime /// <(C)> <(G)> <(C)>

