INTRO: (C) (C) (Am) (Am) (C) (C) (Em) (Em) (F) (F) (G) (G) 1 2

Johnny's always (C) running around
Trying to find (Am) certainty
He needs all the (C) world to confirm
That he ain't lonely (Em)
Mary counts the (F) walls
Knows he tires (G) easily

Johnny thinks the (C) world would be right
If he could buy the (Am) truth from you
Mary says he (C) changes his mind
More than a woman (Em)
But she made her (F) bed
Even when the (G) chance was slim

(C) (C) (Am) (Am) (C) (C) (Em) (Em) (F) (F) (G) (G) 1 2

Johnny says he's (C) willing to learn
Then he decides (Am) he's a fool
Johnny says he'll (C) live anywhere
When he earns time to move (Em)
Mary combs her (F) hair
Says she should be (G) used to it

Mary always (C) hedges her bets
She never knows (Am) what to think
She says that he (C) still acts like he's Being discovered (Em)
Scared that he'll be (F) caught
Without a (G) second thought

(C) Running around (C) (Am) (Am) (C) (C) (Em) (Em) (F) (F) (G) (G) 1 2

Johnny feels he's (C) wasting his breath
Trying to talk (Am) sense to her
Mary says he's (C) lacking a real
Sense of proportion (Em)
So she combs her (F) hair
Knows he tires (G) easily

Johnny's always (C) running around
Trying to find (Am) certainty
He needs all the (C) world to confirm
That he ain't lonely (Em) - y - y
Mary counts the (F) walls
Says she should be (G) used to it

Johnny's always (C) running around (C) (Am) (Am)
(C) Running around (C) (Em) (Em) (F) (F) (G) (G) <(C)>
